

SENIOR KAY KNOFF and sophomore Frank Reuter perform in Wartburg Players Spiritual Emphasis Week production "Five Finger Exercise," which stages its final performance tonight.

SEW Activities Now In Progress

By Diane Moericke

Spiritual Emphasis Week 1963 reaches the half-way point today. The week's topic is "Bound to Be Free."

Concerned with the relation of the individual to the community, and specifically the church community, the coming part of SEW has been designed to raise questions on the part of the students.

The activities have been designed to create a conducive climate for the messages of the week's keynote speaker, the Rev. L. David Brown.

Students began to raise questions Wednesday evening when James Crane, head of the Art Department, Wisconsin State College, River Falls, Wis., participated in an informal discussion regarding art and its place in the church.

SEW FORMALLY began with Thursday morning's convocation. In "Requiem for Two Dots" Crane, through the use of "Little Red" and "Little Blue," raised some questions concerning the role of the church in the life of the modern individual.

Thursday evening's chapel service, which featured Dr. James Fritschel, Music Department, in conversation with an organ, was a device to open up the question of freedom.

Also, beginning Thursday evening, and running through tonight, the Wartburg Players in "Five Finger Exercise" raised the questions of how the individual is tied into the group in which he lives and how the group tries to use him.

"Dream of the Wild Horses," and "Corral," Friday evening's chapel films, were intended to open up the issue of the relationship of the individual to the community so that people will really be concerned in asking questions.

IT IS HOPED THAT the preceding activities will have provided a fertile situation for the Rev. Brown as he begins his series of messages with Sunday morning's sermon entitled, "Afraid . . . To Be Free."

The Rev. Brown will be available for discussions of his messages, the first of which will be in Room 102, LH at 11 a.m. Sunday.

On Sunday evening Rev. Brown will lead a discussion on the implications of the play in the relationship of the individual to the church.

The theme of Monday's convo is "Free? That depends!" Tuesday's convo theme is "Found, but Lost." The Rev. Brown will be available for discussions in the Chapel-auditorium after both convocation programs.

MONDAY AND Tuesday evenings, chapel will also be conducted by Rev. Brown with Holy Communion being celebrated at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday. This is the one opportunity for the whole campus community, both faculty and students, to be together in communion.

Communion will be celebrated in the Lutheran tradition, but non-Lutherans are invited to consult with the pastor about the possibility of their participation.

A special setting has been planned for the chancel, especially for the communion service. The basic idea was suggested by Crane, and it was carried out by a committee headed by Doug Langholz.

Gene Brown Star Soloist

Gene Brown will be the soloist at the Wartburg Community Symphony Concert to be held tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in the Chapel-auditorium, according to conductor Robert E. Lee, Music Department.

Brown, a teacher at the Waverly-Shell Rock High School, has been a member of the orchestra for the past ten years. He will play a trombone solo.

Numbers will include selections which will range from Tartini, a pre-Bach composer, to contemporary music. A Strauss waltz will also be featured.

One of the numbers to be played will be "The Unanswered Question," by Charles E. Ives, a contemporary composer.

This number will feature a trumpet solo, which asks questions. The flute section, which is supposed to represent students, then attempts to answer the questions.

During the questioning and answering, the string section continually plays. This section is symbolic of those who don't care.

"This is one of the most unusual of the numbers to be played," stated Lee.

Change In Hours Approved

Wartburg women in all classes will be able to take advantage of later women's hours beginning next fall.

Administrative Council approval of the liberalized women's hours proposal submitted jointly by the Women's Judiciary Council and Student Senate came rather easily Wednesday, following two months of haggling, compromising and behind-the-scenes action.

The proposal, which began to take shape in the Senate in mid-November, had the backing of Dean of Students Earnest Oppermann and Dean of Women Florence Hertlein.

Most affected will be freshman and sophomore women. Freshman hours will change from 8 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday the first semester and from 9:30 p.m. to 10 p.m. second semester.

Sophomore hours both semesters will be 10 p.m. instead of 9:30 Monday through Thursday. Freshmen and sophomores will also have 10:30 p.m. hours Sunday as the upper two classes now have. Present hours for underclassmen on Sunday are 10 p.m.

Another change involves all women—moving 11:30 hours to midnight on Saturday. No changes were made in the Friday midnight hour.

It took a joint meeting of the Senate and WJC Tuesday night to decide the final request.

The only part of the proposal that caused difficulty was whether freshman women should have 10 p.m. hours both semesters as some senators wanted or 9:30 p.m. both semesters as WJC recommended.

At the Senate meeting senior Fred Dierks moved that a ballot be presented to the women students to let them decide what they preferred.

However, this was voted down by a 9-7 margin with Brenke, Jobman, Ward, Mardorf, Nelson Meyer, Piotter, Shudlick, Augst and Paulson voting against the motion and Youngquist, Sherman, Dierks, Becker, Van Ahn, Wilken and Dan Meyer voting for the motion.

Junior Paul Wilken then moved that the Senate meet with the WJC to decide a final proposal.

This motion passed, 8-6, with Youngquist, Sherman, Van Ahn, Wilken, Becker, Augst, Mardorf and Dan Meyer in favor and Jobman, Shudlick, Piotter, Paulson, Brenke and Nelson Meyer opposed. Ward and Dierks abstained.

Originally, Oppermann's counter proposal to the Senate's first proposal had specified 10 p.m. hours for freshmen both semesters but did not allow 10:30 p.m. hours for underclassmen on Sunday night.

Oppermann changed his position, however, and recommended the proposal which finally passed.

His original proposal would also have eliminated lates for freshmen and would not have allowed any late or combination of lates past midnight at any time, but this was dropped by the Administrative Council and left up to the WJC to decide.

The other major item considered by the Senate Monday night was the election procedure for student body president. Elections Chairman Jim Van Driel reported on the election procedures at a number of different colleges of similar size.

Senators decided that some sort of change in the procedure is necessary but took no definite action on the matter.

Trio To Sing

Pops Concert choice, The Limelighters, will be here Thursday, March 14, according to junior Al Exner, concert chairman.

The concert, which is to be held in the Chapel-auditorium, is to begin at 8 p.m. Tickets for the program will cost $2.50.

Tickets will go on sale either the latter part of next week or the following week, according to Exner.

Scholarship Blanks Ready For February Application

Application blanks for class and funded scholarships are now available.

Deadline for application is Feb. 15, according to Dean of Women Florence Hertlein, who is head of the Scholarship Committee. All applications must be turned in to her office.

"No student will be given consideration for a scholarship until or unless an application is made," she stated.

Scholarships available include all class scholarships for freshmen, sophomores and juniors. A 3.0 grade average is necessary, according to Mrs. Hertlein.

MANY FUNDED awards are also available. Included are such awards as the Lawrence H. Achorn Scholarship given to students who have done good work in French and receive the recommendation of the department. The value has been undetermined.

The Alumni Association awards a $150 to first a senior, next a junior and if funds are available, a sophomore.

Several $100 awards are given by the American Lutheran Brotherhood. These awards are based on need, participation in and contribution to college campus life.

Awarded to an upperclassman majoring in business administration is $200. To receive this award a student should have an outstanding academic record and also have participated in some form of extra-curricular activity.

TWO LUTHERAN Brotherhood Insurance scholarships, are given, valued at $300 each. They are awarded on basis of scholarship, campus leadership and participation and definite potentialities of Christian service beyond college years.

Peace Lutheran Church of Oshkosh, Wis., gives $250 to a junior pre-theological student from Wisconsin with the highest scholastic average.

A scholarship given to students majoring in sociology or social work is the $250 Harold Wienke Award.

These are just part of the many scholarships awarded, according to Mrs. Hertlein.

Frosh To Elect New Class Pres.

Elections for freshman class president for the second semester will be held next Friday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Union, according to Jim Van Driel, elections chairman.

Freshman candidates seeking the office of president are Fred Holzrichter, Ronald Mennen, Ed Paulson, Michael Peich, John Prigge, Richard Tietjen and Warren Youngquist.

Senator elections for the freshman class will be held on Monday, Feb. 11 from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Union with the defeated presidential candidates being eligible to enter the senatorial election.

Additional senatorial candidates are Dennis Brown, Ruth Ann Murray, Kathy Piotter, Linda Stull and Jack Wendt.

Politics, Religion To Highlight Convo

Religion and politics are the main areas of concern for the convocations this semester under the general theme "Isolation Involvement: Man's Predicament."

"The Power and the Glory," by Graham Greene, has been selected as the all-college book for second semester. According to Pastor Herman Diers, college chaplain, the book was selected because it deals with Latin America.

THE STORY DEALS with a priest at the time of the Mexican Revolution. It has many strong religious implications.

Father Michael Marx, St. John's Abbey, will highlight the block on religion. He will be here on Feb. 21 and his address topic is "The Second Vatican Council."

"Cain," a one act drama by Nemerov, will be given Feb. 26 by the Wartburg Players.

LATIN AMERICA is the area dealt with in a speech to be given March 19 by Dr. George Blanksten, Political Science Department at Northwestern University. His address topic will be "The Challenge in Latin America."

Other events featuring Latin America will be March 5 and May 9. Verne Schield and John Baccarini, both of Waverly, will speak on "Self Help." The Rev. John Aamot will speak May 9 on ALC missionary work in Brazil.

March 21 Dr. Arnold Toynbee, reknown historian, will speak on the "Movement Towards World Unity."

Three films will be shown. Included will be a United Nations film entitled "Power Among Men," to be shown March 19 and on April 23 and 25 "Operation Abolition," a two part film, will be shown.

Cagers Face Penn Tonight

Lose To Central By 68-54 Score

By Doug Goke

Wartburg Knights play their second game of a two game road trip tonight as they take on the Statesmen of William Penn.

The Knights beat the Statesmen here in their first encounter, but it was a win of only one point. Both teams have since gained experience, and the Statesmen will have the home court advantage, so it promises to be a close game.

Central last night extended its conference record to 7-3 at the expense of the Knights by a 68-54 score. The Dutchmen were lead by Harold DeBie who scored 18 of their points, all in the first half.

Wartburg, whose conference record is now 4-6 was led by Gary Medlang with 10 points. He was followed by Al Buenning with 9, Dick Ridout with 8, Harold Shudlick and Dave Lange with 6 each.

Central also topped the Knights in their first meeting earlier in the season here at Wartburg.

WARTBURG TRAVELED to Calmar Jan. 19, and came out winning a tough, hard fought ball game with the Norskies of Luther College.

The game was the usual type played when these two rivals get together. It was nip and tuck all the way and the scoreboard showed the final score to be 74 to 67.

WARTBURG HAD four men in double figures: Buenning with 15, Brunscheen, 16, Shudlick, 12 and Ridout, 15. Three other Knights helped the scoring as Medlang countered 9, Sathoff, 5, and Zietlow, 2.

High man for Luther was their tall center, Dave Grove, as he countered for 20 points. Prestegard with 14, Hyland, 10 and Wiebe with 9 were the other big guns for Luther.

THE GAME WAS marred with many fouls by both teams. The Knights again had a cold night at the free throw line as they hit for only a little over 50 per cent with 14 of 27 gift shots. Luther made much better use of their free shots as they countered 13 of 19 possible shots.

The half time score was 35 to 31, but Luther came out cold the second half and hit only six points in the first six minutes of play.

COACH FRED Jaspers commented that this was the type of ball he knew the boys were capable of playing. This was one of the few games this year that the Knights played consistently.

Dave Lang and Ray Bye are expected to join the squad the second semester to add to the depth of the team. Bob Nielsen was lost from the squad as he dropped from school.

Lang and Bye were both lettermen last year, so they will no doubt see quite a bit of action this second semester.

"Keep your eye on the ball," Dave Brunscheen seems to be saying, as he lofts one for the bucket against Dubuque. He scored.

Meet Here Today

Wartburg wrestlers today host St. Cloud in their first of seven remaining meets before the Conference meet March 1 and 2.

Last Saturday the matmen absorbed a 17-13 setback at the hands of Dubuque. Jim Mueller gained points for the Knights on a decision and Bill Smith and Tim Tower won by forfeit. However, the Knight attack was not up to par as several men had to wrestle out of their respective weight divisions.

FOR TODAY'S MEET Wartburg will be strengthened by the return of veteran letterman Bernie Masker. At the same time the loss of Mack Vowers, via ineligibility, and Jeff Mielson and Forrest Cerny, who have dropped off the squad, will hurt the Knights chances.

Following today's non-conference meet, the matmen will return to conference action Feb. 6 against Simpson. Next Saturday the Knights will participate in the Lutheran Tourney at Decorah along with eight other Lutheran colleges.

FRESHMAN DALE Wehling will be wrestling at 115. At 123 will be Roger Damrow, junior. Mike Tower, freshman, will wrestle at 130. Senior Jim Mueller is wrestling at 137. Bill Smith, a senior, or Tim Tower, senior, will wrestle at 147.

Tower or Bernie Masker, junior, will wrestle at 157. At 167 will be either Masker or Cal Brown, freshman. Wrestling at 177 will be Brown or Lincoln Johnson, junior. Duane Huth, junior, will wrestle at heavy-weight.

With the intramural basketball schedule half completed, the powers in the American League appear to be Off-campus II, Clinton II and Cotta.

In the National League Married Men and Ketha look like the teams to beat.

During next week in the American League eight games will be played. The feature games find undefeated Clinton II putting its record on the line against Grossmann II and a tough Off-campus II team (3-0) going against Grossmann Basement.

In American League action during the week it was Clinton II over Clinton III, 55-47, while Duane Kamrath with 32 points led Alpha Beta Gamma to a 53-51 conquest of Grossmann II.

Other games found Off-campus II defeating North Hall, 47-22, and Grossmann Basement downing Grossmann III by the score of 70 to 46.

Drama Displays SEW Theme

By Susan Sampson
Wartburg College Theatre makes a significant contribution to this year's Spiritual Emphasis Week with the performance of "Five Finger Exercise," a three-act play written by Peter Shaffer.

The theme of this year's Spiritual Emphasis Week, "Bound to be Free," is approached from the negative viewpoint in this play. On the surface, the play deals with the personal relationships between members of a modern British family.

Arrival of a young German tutor in the home is instrumental in the inevitable eruption of conflict and discord, passionate feelings which have for so long been repressed or ignored.

Hopeless frustrations of human beings which have resulted from complete selfishness and superficiality of meaningless lives are completely stifling.

A desperate struggle for freedom from these chafing restrictions occurs when the individuals of the family are forced to acknowledge the wretchedness of their existence. It is a painful and an ugly struggle.

The intensity of Dave Hutson's performance did much to set the emotional tone of the whole play. He did a fine job in the portrayal of Clive Harrington, the son who blindly and desperately was seeking his freedom.

Kay Knopf, as the mother, represented superficiality with disturbing frankness. John Prigge, Mr. Harrington, who was passively resistant, almost resigned, handled his role with appropriate unobtrusiveness.

Schmidt Speaks For Conference

Dr. Karl T. Schmidt, head of the Department of Religion, addressed pastors of the Lutheran Church of America (formerly ULCA), Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod and The American Lutheran Church last Tuesday at a conference in Fort Dodge.

His address dealt with the theme of his newly published monograph, "Rediscovering the Natural in Protestant Theology."

Feb. 25, Dr. Schmidt will similarly address the Waterloo Pastors' Conference of the Iowa District, the ALC, in this instance giving a review of the book along with his concerns in writing it.

Beginning March 8 he will spend one day weekly at Wartburg Theological Seminary, Dubuque, teaching a course on Christian Social Ethics.

Pamela, the immature, scatterbrained daughter, at times exhibited surprising reflections, on occasion coming dangerously close to the truth of the deplorable situation. Dee Ann Dreier, in this role, was an entertaining element of gay, careless youth, a bright spot in an otherwise dark, foreboding atmosphere.

Frank Reuter, German exchange student from Bonn, was well-suited for the role of the German tutor, not only because

Rev. C. Foelsch Keynote Speaker At B.H. Institute

Rev. Charles B. Foelsch, pastor of Christ the King Lutheran Church in Chicago, will be the keynote speaker for the 16th Annual Brotherhood Institute of the Iowa District ALC, to be held on campus Feb. 8.

Theme for the institute is "Eye Witness." Other speakers will include Dr. H. W. Siefkes, president of the Iowa District ALC; Dr. C. L. Hagan, Westmar, president of the Iowa District Brotherhood; Dr. C. H. Becker, president of Wartburg; and the Rev. Herbert Brokering, Minneapolis, Minn.

Day's activities will begin with a coffee and registration period in Knights Gym. Other sessions will be held in the Chapel-auditorium.

Delegates will be entertained during the day by the Wartburg Choir, Concert Band and Castle Singers. Lutheran Mutual Life Insurance Co. will host a banquet in the evening.

The Institute is sponsored by the Iowa District Brotherhood, St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Waverly and the college. Approximately four hundred and fifty men are expected to attend.

IBM Rep. Here

A representative from the IBM Corporation will be on campus next Thursday evening to present a program on opportunities at IBM.

The program will be held in the Chapel-auditorium at 7:30 p.m. It will be of interest to people in all fields of study.

Job opportunities in this company will be discussed. Literature will be passed out and follow up job interviews will be arranged if there is sufficient interest.

of his obviously natural German accent, but because he provided the charm and influence of the Old World in contrast to the modern Englishmen. His performance was sadly convincing.

John Gill and Pastor Herman Diers should be commended for the choice of this play for use in connection with Spiritual Emphasis Week.

The director, the cast and all the people who had a part in the production should be congratulated for a fine job in staging this powerful, thought-provoking play.

Film Next Wed. Features Ballet

"The Bolshoi Ballet" will be the next movie shown in Wartburg's film series next Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Chapel-auditorium.

This movie is the actual filming of the Bolshoi Company of Moscow during one of its performances in London. Selections from six ballets compose a prelude to the main feature "Giselle," which is a complete ballet in two acts.

Included in the program are "Dance of the Tartars" from the ballet "The Fountain of Bakhchisarai"; "Spanish Dance" from the ballet "Le Lac Des Cygnes"; "Spring Water: Polonaise and Cracovianna" from the opera "Ivan Susanin"; "Walpurgisnacht" from "Faust"; and "The Dying Swan."

Mathre To Interview For Bible Camp Jobs

Pastor Jerry Mathre will be on campus next Monday to interview people who are interested in work as Iowa Bible Camp counselors.

Interviews will be held from 12 to 4 p.m. in Fuchs Lounge. Students may sign up for an interview time on the bulletin board outside the college chaplain's office.

On Feb. 11 interviews will be held from 12 to 4 p.m. for those interested in work among young children in the inner city of Jersey City, New Jersey.

A sign-up sheet for an interview time for this program is also posted on the bulletin board. At 7:30 p.m. a group meeting will be held in Clinton Hall Lounge for those interested in this type of work.

Youth Ministries of the American Lutheran Church will have a representative on campus for interviews on February 12.

Non-Violence Theme For Gormly Speech

Walter Gormly, widely-known advocate of non-violence and opponent of nuclear arms buildups and testing, will speak at World Affairs Forum Thursday evening on the topic "Non-violence or Extinction."

The meeting, which is jointly sponsored by Young Republicans and Young Democrats, will be held in the Little Theater at 7:30 p.m.

Gormly, a native of Mount Vernon, was classified as a conscientious objector during World War II.

His activities have included participation in demonstrations promoting non-violence, including protests against intercontinental ballistic missile bases at Cheyenne, Wyoming, in 1958 and Omaha, Nebr., in 1959.
